

Lesson 2

The Old Testament, The New Testament and The Testament of Light

Greetings Dear Ones:

Thank you for joining us once again to bring Light and love into this precious planet for healing and enlightenment. We will begin our next lesson, and we ask for your openness as you read this information from the Light.

Let us begin - the children of Israel needed more than just a God to worship. They required guidance when faced with their daily lives and struggles. The Old Testament was a manifestation of the people's prayers for guidelines to live Godly lives. The books of the Old Testament provided laws and treatises to follow for raising families, staying healthy, interactions with daily commerce and spiritual growth.

Much of their spiritual growth entailed trust and faith in an omnipotent, and often times vengeful God. The Ten Commandments offered a compact and succinct format of concrete rules that, if followed faithfully, one could walk a Godly path. At that time of spiritual consciousness, in that part of the planet, there was no room or time for philosophical discourse, such as "Why am I here? What is the purpose of life? or Is there a God?" These questions were not absolute, and could detract the Israelites and others from their common cause of survival and procreation, while in the midst of chaos and suffering at the hands of their enemies.

The basics of the Ten Commandments are still a very significant guide post pertinent in today's society. Killing, stealing, etc. are acts of individual powerlessness and misfocus. Individuals who commit these acts do so in an attempt to gain power. Individual power is the source of light that grows internally, not externally; however, the internal and external were not spiritual concepts in those days. Therefore, the Ten Commandments were given to the people to discourage individuals from robbing power from each other. While the concept of power robbing and understanding all power comes from within is better understood today; however, it is still not Universally embraced throughout the planet. Understanding what real power is and searing it into the DNA of individuals, communities and nations will be the work of miracles that we invite each of you to join us in.

The Old Testament has many accounts of miracles, some of great sacrifice and vision. These miracles are presented in vivid splendor, almost in keeping with Hollywood film making. When you recall the story of Moses parting the Red Sea it does have a lot of drama. Some of the Old Testament miracles have been explained away by your scientists, but nonetheless they remain in your heads and hearts. The King James Version of the Old and New Testament have edited many of the original stories. The Dead Sea scrolls and the Gnostic Scriptures were more accurate accounts of the events.

There actually was a Moses, King David and other prophets in the Old Testament. They were early pre-Masters so to speak. At the time they governed and inspired the people practicing their understanding of the light's message within the perimeters of the Holy Laws. Many were co-creators of miracles to focus God's message within the cultural framework and beliefs of the time. God's message of the day was one of wisdom, supreme power, and often times revenge when laws were broken.

The New Testament poured in greater Light as monotheistic people grew in numbers, and began to outgrow the concept and need for a vengeful God. Many people grew hungry for love, forgiveness and the possibilities of stretching their beliefs beyond a “Black and White” cognition set. When the Master/Teacher Jesus Christ came it was due to the evolved collective consciousness of prayers and desires of the people. Simply put, the Christ came because the people were ready for him to manifest himself. Certainly, many in power then, or those resistant to change, did not welcome the coming of this Master of the Light. You all know those stories as they were written in the New Testament.

The Christ well knew what he was up against, and he was not pushed around quite as easily as it was portrayed in the New Testament. He was a Master that could come and go in a heart beat. He understood and practiced Quantum Physics at a level well beyond your brilliant physicists who brought it to today’s forefront from the Light. When you think of the science fiction TV series of Star Trek and Captain Kirk and his faithful crew being “beamed up”; that, my precious friends is a very, very elementary explanation of what the Christ did. We in the Light feel; however, Christ did it with much more panache than Captain Kirk, et al. All Masters of the Light who have visited or lived on Earth have the understanding and capabilities to change what would appear to be solid molecular structure into sub-atomic particles. Masters can create wine from water, heal the sick, walk on water and simultaneously appear in many parts of the planet and Universe.

The Christ’s message was the next evolutionary step for the Israelites and those that choose to follow his teachings (very early Christians). His message was as powerful and perhaps as complex as Quantum Physics or String Theory is today, and as powerful, yet magnificently simple as “God is Love.” The new message was one of compassion and forgiveness. God tells his children to love those who love us, and those who hate us. The new message was one of living in the “Gray Zones” of life – not the absolutes of “Blacks and Whites.” For example, do you recall the story of the woman who was to be stoned for her alleged act of adultery by the people in her town? She clearly broke one of the commandments, and playing by Old Testament rules that called for punishment by death. Then things changed, and Christ reportedly said, “Those among you without sin cast the first stone.” This was the new message of the evolved God to his children, one of forgiveness, compassion and non-judgment. This message is still vital today and would stop many wars if truly practiced.

The final act of the Master was to act as a bridge from a world of sin to a sinless, perfect God. People could be forgiven because Christ carried the burden of their sins. Although the events of the crucifixion have been distorted due to the politics and those in power at the time of translation, the message was simple – “You have been forgiven of any laws you have broken in the Old Laws (The Old Testament), and now you get a second, third and many other chances to learn your lessons and find your way home to the Light.” There is reincarnation, there is life after death, and a rich array of choices and opportunities to lighten your load and brighten your path.” - or – “I am the way, the truth and the Light.” The Christ so masterfully told the followers, then and today, follow my lead, I will model and help you shape the actions you need to grow into the Light. I will teach you to become a Master. That message is clearer today than ever before thanks to Mother/Father God’s flow of Grace and Light...each of you can become Masters by asking and believing. That is how the Christ did it, and all the others.

Today, we have Masters; they come in many different shapes, colors, sexes, religions/cultures and economic statuses. Some are still growing into their abilities and waking up to their roles and purposes, and others are well ensconced in their talents. To name a few living and others who have transitioned:

Buddha, Muhammad, DaVinci, Mother Theresa, The Dali Lama, Barbara Jordon (deceased TX Senator), Eleanor Roosevelt, Martin Luther King, Chief Joseph, many middle eastern yogis and many, many indigenous people today and centuries ago. I have only listed a handful; listen to your intuition and you will hear many other names. You have some that are entering your American political arena, and would not consider themselves as Masters, but due to their Light are able to touch people's hearts with great visions.

In the New Testament of the Light there are many Masters in many cultures. The ability of Hollywood movie makers to create powerful films that touch the soul, and ignite viewers internal power and healing is part of the new world collective consciousness, please note that I do not use the term "New Age" because although it was relevant to 1980's and 90's, it too has evolved to better language that defines a multidimensional collective consciousness and ascension.

Now more than in the days of the Old or New Testament, Light is being poured with tremendous intensity into your living planet Earth and all its willing and accepting beings. You precious children of the Light have prayed, meditated and called out for Love, Peace and Healing of your precious planet and all its inhabitants. We in the Light have patiently waited for this moment in time, and now want you to know – WE HAVE HEARD YOUR CALLS AND ARE HERE TO SERVE YOUR NEEDS; not as gods, but as co-creators who will serve along your sides with love and compassion. We are ready and joyfully here to bring you Light to help in the healing and ascension of the Earth and its living beings.

You will find as you ask for help and guidance, it will come more rapidly than before. There are many people who are now finding they are beginning to channel, to increase their intuitive senses, and heal themselves and others. Ask for the Light of God's great grace to fill you up, believe in it and trust it is yours. Act upon this belief to manifest the Light deeper into your DNA. As the contemporary saying goes, "Don't just believe in miracles, expect to see them." You may not see the Red Sea parting, but if you experience something that brings you unspeakable joy and fills your heart to overflowing you have experienced, and probably co-created your own miracle. Tell someone of like mind and ask them about their miracles. This will nurture and grow your beginnings into "Master-hood." Because you are reading this information and attending the "Susan Sessions" you have illustrated your willingness to join other Light workers to become part of the next evolution of Light.

If your heart bubbles up with joy and you find yourself feeling more playful as you read this material, trust those feelings and know that you are ready to begin activating your talents and enlisting your own Masterful Self in the ascension of Earth and its beings to its rightful place in the Universe.

We in the Light wish to express our gratitude and love for your wiliness to grow into your own Christ consciousness. When we see you all, you shine as bright shinning lights transmitting energy and love all around you. We thank Mother/Father God for each of your precious lives

May the Universal Light of God's Good Grace Bless You with Abundant Love,

Susan and Many Others in The Light
