Specializing Your Talents with the Light Grid

Greetings Dear Friends of the Light:

Last time we discussed the Light Grid, which is the “God Force.” Many of you began connecting to the Light Grid at the group session. Some of you practiced after the group on your own connecting to the Grid; some with varying degrees of success, some perhaps feeling they didn’t have success. We in the Light are here to tell you whatever degree your experience was, or was not - is just fine. All is well; your perception of your success will come, just keep asking for guidance as you begin the exercise.

This reading will focus on growing and understanding your gifts and talents using the Light Grid as a kind of “rocket booster” to assist you. There is not a prerequisite for beginning this exercise. Begin with a simple willingness to stretch your heart and mind a bit to enter the Quantum world of possibilities. Although you will receive help as you request it from those in the Light as you perform this exercise, it is imperative to understand that it is you, “your God Chunk”, your consciousness that will be creating change.

Before engaging in this exercise we in the Light will explain the dynamics of using the Light Grid to seek and amplify your gifts. Your talents and Love are needed at this crucial time to help your planet and all living beings ascend into the Light. Mother/Father God has heard your prayers for healing and is sending huge amounts of Light to your living Earth. The Light is your vehicle for growing your talents and allowing you to create your own reality. Your intention to manifest these possibilities is the igniting agent that will make it happen.

Patricia has permitted us to use her growing talents as an example of this process. Patricia, like many of you, has been in the “void” of transition for many years. This void is simply a place that offers knowledge through healing and a menu of infinite possibilities for one’s life path. When people begin to grow and question their purpose and relevancy of life they enter their own “void”. Although some may experience disequilibrium, sadness, loss or discomfort in their void, it is a fluid reality that is vital for change and transition.

Patricia has traveled through many possible sub-dimensions within her personal void via dreams and life experiences for many years. She believed that during this time she made many mistakes; however, there were no mistakes, there were simply choices and experiments as she searched for happiness and understanding of her purpose. There are no real mistakes, as there are no real coincidences in your lives, only experiences and opportunities for growth. And all of your experiences whether you feel they were wise or not lead you back home to the Light.

In Patricia’s sojourn, she experienced a rich array of lessons and dramas that led her closer to an understanding of authentic power (the power within). Now she is beginning to come out of her void with an understanding that her talent lies in individual healing of the heart and old traumas for those on her path. With this gift she is developing her voice and courage for channeling. There are millions of people like Patricia that are traveling this path today. Some will be part of the ascension through many forms of healing. Many, many others will be intuitively connected with the animal world to heal and bring equity. Other people will heal through the restoration of plants and herbs to bring them and their Light being entities to their highest purpose. The healing of the planet will come about through those that are trained and untrained environmental scientists. Many of you have the gift of hearing your living planet’s voice and will be part of the healing of the Earth and its ascension.

Each of you have talents that you have grown over many life times of learning and are connected to people, plants, animals or the living breathing Earth. Some of you already know your talents, but deny them due to false humility. If this message resonates deep within you either as a shout or a whisper we in the Light welcome you to come forward to begin the work that you alone were born to do. This work dear ones is your purpose and your path of greatest joy and abundance.

Many of you might be thinking, "I am not clear on what that path is. Sometimes I get feelings, but after all I do have to have work and that pay my bills." Well, of course you have to pay your bills and take care of your responsibilities! True spiritual growth is making all parts of your life work! We are not asking you to give up your day job, abandon your family and friends or surrender your Earthly possessions. Precious children of the Light, we are simply asking that you begin to playfully explore connecting to the Light Grid and visualize your possible paths of service. To accomplish this all that is required is simply a little time carved out of your day to connect with the Light.

As you make this connection you will notice, perhaps very subtly at first, what appear as small coincidences (remember there are no coincidences), or perhaps you view them as miracles that connect you closer and closer to your talents. As these connections increase in frequency and intensity you will begin to find yourself in the Quantum world of infinite possibilities. With this shift you will begin to have a wider and deeper vision into a multidimensional world in which you will become a co-creator. You will begin to notice that your moods and physical needs will slowly change. Some of you, not all, will find your basic beliefs shifting, maybe becoming vegetarians because you have lost your taste for meat. Addictions of all kinds will not have their strong hold on your shifted-self as they once did. You will live in a dimension of higher vibrations and Light where addictions lose their power. All traumas and past resentments with family or friends will simply blow away as a gentle breeze.

Within this multidimensional state you will notice that people will be drawn to you, and you will "know" who is truly on your path and who is not. It is not your job to fix every one! It is your job to first fortify yourself with Love and Light! After you are filled with Light, then you will be able to serve those on your highest path, which in turn will bring you boundless joy and freedom. All those earlier emotions, worries, addictions and fears that have held you hostage and prevented you from becoming your higher self will no longer be part of your reality. Please know dear friends that you absolutely can become your higher self. Many of you have already experienced little visions of that part of you in your daily life. Each of you already are co-creators on your planet, each of you do connect to God because each of you are part of God. You are all connected to this Universal force; you are all one with the Light.

Now, let us begin with helping you connect to the Light Grid; to meet and greet your higher-self; and, grow your talents. Begin alone in a quiet room or environment that touches your heart and brings you peace. Position yourself in a sitting position with your spine straight in upright posture. Avoid lying down as you might fall asleep, which is fine if sleep alone is what you really need. Have a lit candle near you and draw in the Light from the candle. You may use inspirational music playing softly in the background to help center you. Imagine that the Light from the flame is your point of entry into the reality of the Light Grid. Begin to visualize yourself connecting your meridian points to the Grid nodes as you have practiced in the last lesson. Remember the idea is not to demand perfection of yourself if you do not feel you are doing it correctly. The idea is to allow you to play with it and experiment. Play and enjoying the feeling are really the operative words here. Try not to be in your overly responsible "Adult Mode". Now using your highest intent ask the Light for guidance to begin to grow your talent. You will slowly (some of you not so slowly) begin sensing, perhaps through hearing guidance or visualizing pictures of your gift. If your mind races do not chastise yourself; simply ask that someone in the Light take this grocery list of chatter and hold it for a bit. They will happily return it all to you if you want it back when you are finished.

Stay at this level of consciousness for as long as you are comfortable, but do try for at least 5 to 10 minutes at first, then increase the time incrementally. When you are finished try to recall all the sights, sounds and messages you experienced in this state. Record them on your computer, or a special journal. From time to time review your journaling and note whether you have experienced similar themes, experiences, people or objects in your dreams and your waking life. Try not to think of these connections when you experience them as weird, or question your sanity. Instead use your strongest intention to give power to these experiences that you have created, believe in them. With your new beliefs the possibilities are limitless!

We in the Light appreciate all your efforts along with your frustrations as you begin walking your path of highest spiritual intention. Each of you have teachers, spiritual guides, angels and many others connected with you to love and support you at a moments notice. To access their assistance you only need to ask for their help. They are always with you, but will not interfere with the balance and flow of your lives without your permission.

As each of you connect with your gifts and guidance in the Light share your experiences with friends and family who are walking the same path. Love, encourage and celebrate each others talents. Each of you is magnificent! Your time has come to serve and experience untold joy, creativity and abundance, and we praise you for your gifts.

May the Good Grace of the Universe Flow Within You and Surround All the Places within You That Need Healing and Abundance,

Susan and Others in the Light
